

Annual Bluegrass

Annual bluegrass is a clump-forming winter annual. The blades and stems are smooth and the terminal portion of each leaf blade is prow-shaped (right image). Each plant produces hundreds of tiny white seedheads.

The ligule is pointed and membranous.

Seed. Seed are 1.5 to 2.0 mm long.

Life cycle: winter annual.