

Buckhorn Plantain

Rosettes. Key characteristics: leaves have distinct parallel veins and are lanceolate in shape.

Flowers and seedheads occur on long stalks and are cone-shaped.

Seed. Seed are light to dark brown, have a groove containing the dark hilum and are generally just under 3.0 mm in length.

Life cycle: perennial.