

Butterweed

Butterweed contributes to painting fields yellow in the spring.

Flowering plants.

Closeup of foliage. Key characteristics: leaves are alternate and irregularly lobed; both leaves and stems are smooth. Stems are hollow.

Often, the foliage turns reddish-purple after flowering.

Life cycle: winter annual.