

Henbit

Group of flowering plants. Key characteristics: plants have square stems and the upper leaves lack petioles and surround the stem.

Entire fields appear painted in the early spring.

Flower closeup. Key characteristics: flowers occur in the upper leaf axils and their color ranges from pink to purple. Photo courtesy of Randy Eubanks.

Life cycle: winter annual.