

Mousetail

Flowering plants. Key characteristics: although the leaves resemble those of grasses, the plant is actually a dicot and a member of the buttercup family.

Flowers and seedheads. Key characteristics: flowers are greenish-white with 5 petals. The seedhead has a characteristic "mousetail" appearance.

Life cycle: winter annual.