

Trumpetcreeper

Vegetative shoots. Key characteristics: compound leaves which are coarsely toothed. The plant takes on a vine-like growth habit when support is present.

Flowers. Key characteristics: large and tubular, bright orange in color.

Seed are very paper-like in texture, aiding in their dispersal.

Life cycle: perennial.