

Witchgrass

Collar region. The ligule is a ring of hair; auricles are absent. Dense, soft but stiff hair arise from the sheath and stem at a 90-degree angle. Both surfaces of the blades are covered with dense, soft hair.

Inflorescence. Key characteristics: highly branched and open.

Seed. Seed are approximately 1.5 mm long.

Life cycle: summer annual.